A BLOW TO THE PEOPLE.

The Sacramento Bee takes the following view of the retirement of Leland Stanford:

The Presidency of the great railroad system of this State has passed out of the hands of the man who has been and who is the friend of the people, the master and prop of the working classes represented as the employees of the great transportation concerns, and into the hands of a man who has never shown any sympathy with labor, and whose utterances, on more than one occasion, have been rather insulting and snarling to the working classes of this Coast. Mr. Huntington may, at the present time, be a safer financial head for the railroad systems of this State than was Senator Stanford, but he never can be the friend to the masses that the deposed and beloved chief. When President Huntington sees fit to use the language that he does concerning the ex-President, and which cannot be regarded in any other light than as an intentional public insult, it would be unmanly and indecent in any man living in Senator Stanford's old home, and knowing the good he has done and is doing, to sit silent and not utter a protest against the language used, and at the same time give utterance to the thoughts of the multitude on the matter.

With the private concerns of the railroad company we have nothing to do, but the great voice of public opinion has a right to find in the press an outspoken echo.

The Bee, therefore, will not hesitate to express the sentiments of the great mass of the Golden State that the retirement of Leland Stanford as President of these roads is a great public calamity. On every occasion he has been the true and tried friend of the working classes. From beyond the glittering skyscrapers to below the Tehachapi Pass, and from the western to the eastern end of the great inter-State roads, Leland Stanford is loved by the laborers, whom he has befriended on every occasion. When, years ago, a reduction of ten per cent in wages was ordered throughout the vast systems of this and adjoining States, it was Leland Stanford who stood in the breach and said: "Gentlemen you shall not do this wrong. The laborers whom we employ are paid no more than their work is entitled to, and they shall not be reduced therein while I can prevent it." Again, when the same effort was urgently made, at the instigation of various heads of departments, Leland Stanford fought it with an energy born of an inherent love of justice. Importuning after importuning had no effect on him, and he solemnly declared that no reduction would ever be made in the wages of the men in his employ until the same per cent reduction commenced with his own salary, and continued through the hands of every department before it touched the working classes.

Is it any wonder that the people of this State love Leland Stanford? Is it any wonder that even the Mussel Slough settlers, bitter as they were against the railroad, had nothing but words of admiration and respect for Leland Stanford? It was he who always kept the railroad as near in touch with the people as possible, and it is no exaggeration to say that the corporation never came into clash with the great public sentiment so long as the wise and humanitarian policy of Leland Stanford was carried out to the letter.

Let others worship the rising sun; We bow to those whose course is run.

Surely it would have been in much better taste for Mr. Huntington to have refrained from the language which he used, especially when it is considered that the public approbrium into which the railroad has occasionally been plunged has always been against the advice and contrary to the counsel of Leland Stanford. It is not proper that the language of Mr. Huntington should go unrebuked. It is not proper that the people of the city of Sacramento, for whom Leland Stanford has done so much, and who have always been ready to testify their love for him, should stand silently by and not give utterance to the affection in which they hold him. Bias and cowardly lies the slave that would refrain from casting his last lingering glance at the setting sun, because he is too badly engaged in croaking the pregnant blagues of the knee to the newly-arrived orb.

Leland Stanford lives to-day in the hearts of the people. He has built for himself a throne in their affections which no other millionaire of this State has ever occupied. There is not a workman on the great railroads of the Pacific coast to-day who would not take off his hat to Leland Stanford as a service. If the light of his ambition be to return to the United States Senate, the great voice of the people will be lifted up in one overwhelming outcry in his behalf—an outcry intensified and emphasized by recent events.

The capture in one week of 23 Chinese who were trying to steal into California from Ensenada shows that the reports of wholesale smuggling of coolies over the border were not exaggerated. The Chinese formed a part of the gang of 87 that were brought into this port by the last Chinese steamer, and here transferred to the Newburn for Guaymas and Mazatlan. They did not go far south, however, but got off at Ensenada and at once set about their scheme to enter California. If the customs officers had not been recently shaken up about smuggling, the coolies would probably have succeeded in getting in, as so many of their predecessors have done.

Lander county intends to bring suit against the State of Nevada for the balance not paid by the latter for the expenses of the last special election.

House Business.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Immediately after the reading of the journal the House to-day resumed consideration of the contested election case of Weddell against Wise.

Haugen, of Wisconsin, and Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, spoke in favor of the contestant. Then Wise took the floor in his own behalf.

After further discussion a vote was taken on the minority substitute which was defeated—yeas 119, nays 133.

The majority resolution declaring Weddell entitled to a seat, was adopted—yeas 131, nays 120. Weddell was sworn in.

The House proceeded to pay tribute to the memory of the late James L. Smith, Representative from Nebraska, and then adjourned.

The House Committee on Private Land Claims to-day agreed upon a bill to establish a United States Land Court and to provide for the judicial investigation and settlement of land claims in Arizona and New Mexico. The court consists of a Chief Justice and two Associate Justices who shall hold terms annually at the capital of Colorado and at the capitals of the new Territories and in Washington, D. C., when necessary.

Floods in New South Wales.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—The steamer Mariposa, which arrived to-day, twenty-four days from Sydney and seven from Honolulu, brings the following advices:

Extensive floods have done great damage in New South Wales and Queensland. A large part of Brisbane was inundated, wharves submerged and railroad traffic stopped. Hundreds of families are homeless and many fatalities are reported. Grafton, Singleton, West Maitland and other towns were flooded. Many losses of life and great destruction of property are reported from interior points. At last accounts the floods were subsiding and communications between different districts were being restored.

A railway collision occurred March 1st on the Penarth and Kerit line and seven men were killed.

The schooner Agnes, with all hands has been lost six miles north of Brunswick river.

The American schooner, Cassie Hayward, was lost on an island of the Morrey group, February 4th. The schooner reached Karatonga, January 24th, from San Francisco, and was engaged by Captain Pittz for a trading cruise among the islands. The current carried the vessel ashore on the island of Mangaia during a calm, and it was impossible to get her off. The hull, which was insured for $10,000, and the cargo which was valued at $5,000, were sold for $195. Captain Pittz and the shipwrecked crew were taken to Karatonga by the steamship Little Agnes.

The Canning Chinese.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Eighty-seven Chinese, who arrived here on the steamer Oceanic this week, en route to Guaymas, attempted to take passage to that port to-day on the steamer City of Sydney sailing for Panama, notwithstanding the fact that the steamer does not stop at Guaymas. Owing to the fact that the number of Chinese who arrived here in transit and afterwards took passage to Mexican ports were captured at San Diego recently while attempting to enter the United States territory, Collector of the Port, Phelps, issued an order to-day refusing to allow these eighty-seven Chinamen to be transferred from the Oceanic to the City of Sydney. The steamship company proposed to the Collector that the City of Sydney would stop at Guaymas on this trip if he would allow the Chinamen to go. The Collector then consulted the United States District Attorney, and upon being assured that he had no right to detain the Chinese in transit he issued an order allowing them to depart though the steamship company promised that the Chinamen should be landed 850 miles below Guaymas.

Japanese National Exposition.

Special to the Journal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Reports received concerning the opening of the Japan National Exposition at Tokio are to the effect that it is an immense affair, and that it is thoroughly representative of the wealth and great resources of the country. For over five years they had been preparing for the exposition, at which all the products of the Japanese Empire are shown. It is held in the national park and the buildings cover an area of ten acres. The buildings alone cost $500,000, most of which was appropriated by the Government. The great collection of old masters of Japanese art is attracting much attention. The Emperor has a private collection on exhibition, as also have many of the richest private citizens.

The Silver Caucus.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The session of the House bill particularly attacked by the silver men is that making treasury notes issued in payment for bullion redeemable in bullion. They argue that the effect of this would be to pile up bullion in the treasury and give warrant for the demand of the radical farmers element for great government warehouses in which their agricultural products may be stored and government notes issued thereon. They want treasury notes redeemable in lawful money which may be procured by coining the bullion purchased.

The Coming Pioneers.

Special to the Journal.

CHICAGO, April 12.—The New England Society of California Pioneers arrived here on a special train this afternoon on their way west. The party numbers 175. They remained in this city three hours, during which time they were given a rousing reception by the Chicago society. The auditorium of the Opera House was specially lighted up for them and an elaborate luncheon was spread at the grand Pacific.

For Free Coinage.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The members of the Senate Republican Silver Committee have not had a meeting since Thursday night, and the indications are that they will wait until the House caucus announces its conclusion upon the subject. The silver men on this committee are contending for free coinage of the bullion produced in the United States and of Mexican ores smelted in United States refineries.

Indian Soldiers.

Special to the Journal.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Secretary Proctor submitted to the Interior Department a proposition to enlist 1,000 Indians in the regular army officers by graduates of West Point. The details have not been fully matured, but it is the opinion of the Secretary that the Indians can be received into the regular army in a separate regiment, to their own and the Government's advantage.

A True Cat Story.

When I was a little girl I used to fish from a deep brook that ran at the foot of the hills near father's house. I would tie a bent pin to a length of apple twine, and lying face down on the planks that bridged the brook in the cart road, would watch the little fishes nibble my bait till I had hooked one or more of them.

One day our old tortoise shell cat came and sat down on the planks close beside me. She craned her head over the end of the bridge, and with glancing eyes watched the shining little fellows that swam around my hook in the water. At last a fat chub took hold of my bait, and pulling him out, I gave the wriggling fish to the eager watching old cat, who solaced it with a growl of approval.

The next day old pussy came into the kitchen as wet as a drenched rat—not a dry hair on her sleek coat.

"Where has that cat been?" we all cried, and we had occasion to repeat the exclamation the next day, and the next, and the next, for each noontime pussy made a like appearance, creeping in under the kitchen stove to dry her dripping fur.

"Maybe she falls into the cistern when watching for mice," mother said; "if she gets into the cellar through that scuttle hole window it must be boarded. One of you children keep close watch of her to-morrow."

But it was not in the cistern where pussy had taken her daily bath, but in the brook. I saw her the next forenoon, sitting at one end of the plank bridge, and crouched near to watch her.

She was eagerly peering down into the water, lashing her tail and poised for a spring. Then came a flying leap, a quick splash and shower of glittering drops, then a big commotion under the water, and up out of the brook pussy darted, puffing and sneezing, dripping from ears to tail, but with a slippery, flopping chub fiercely held in her tooth.

Our smart old cat had simply learned how to go fishing for herself.—Clarissa Potter in Springfield Homestead.

Wise Old Cat.

A rather reckless phrase sometimes accuses forward children of being "too smart to live." Our Dumb Animals relate a story of a humane housekeeper who concluded that her pet cat was too smart to die.

There were three cats in a William street family in Norwich, Conn., and as the lady of the house concluded that one was sufficient, an edict of death was passed on the old cat and her kitten. The question of the manner of death was settled and chloroform purchased.

Some days passed before the executioner could muster courage to execute the sentence, and finally the lady put some laudanum into the cat's milk, thinking to produce a stupor that would make the chloroforming more easy.

The old cat tasted the milk, cast her eyes suspiciously about her, and refused to eat. The kitten rushed to the dish, but was violently knocked away by the old cat, who took a corner of a mat and covered over the dish to hide it from the kitten and prevent her from taking the "medicine."

The lady could not believe it possible that the act was intentional, and uncovered the dish. The cat again knocked the kitten from it, and covered it more carefully than before. The repetition of the protective act was too much for the lady, and the cat and her two kittens were allowed to live.

Trees on the Tower.

Greensburg, Ind., has long been noted by the singular phenomenon of trees growing on the court house tower. The first tree made its appearance in 1864, a tiny green shoot on top of the tower, and was the cause of much wonder and interest. Its development was eagerly watched, and, as its steady growth continued, became known as the Lone Tree. As years passed the little tree assumed greater and more graceful proportions, and flourished in spite of its lofty position, exposed to wind and storm. Other trees have since made their appearance on different sides of the tower, until there are now seven. While making the repairs on the court house a scaffolding was built around the tower, and the largest tree was reported to be six and one half inches in circumference and five feet ten inches high. No damage was being done by them, and it was decided to allow them to remain, as the cravices in the stone roofing made by the roots of the trees show an opening of only one and one-quarter inches. The tower is 128 feet high, of solid masonry, and how the trees find nourishment to sustain them is a matter of great wonder.—Christian at Work.

A Kernoozer.

Theft of memorial brasses, and displacement, neglect or loss of armor from church tombs have been occasioning correspondence in the daily papers. Kernoozers may still rescue a great deal of the latter from oblivion, as, like all true connoisseurs, they are enthusiasts. The words kernoozer, kernoozing, need explanation. A man who was of humble birth and no education became so mixed up with artists that he gathered much knowledge on matters connected with art, and developed a taste to some extent for studying armor. He was often found in the celebrated Christie auction room, and on one occasion when armor was under the hammer, he of the rostrum asked Mr. — what was his opinion of the pieces, but Mr. — excused himself from giving any on the ground that he was no kernoozer. When a club of armor virtuosos was formed, and a name desired for it, some one suggested the adoption of Kernoozer, and now its sense is so extended that a verb is formed—I kernooze, you kernooze, he kernoozes, I should kernooze, he should kernooze, etc.—London Exchange and Mart.

Abstomious Indians.

It is often observed that man is a creature of habit. In the matter of drinking it is too often the case that he is the slave of habit. The practice of the South American Indians of the desert regions throws some light upon this subject.

These people are certainly not unlike the animals they breed in many of their habits, as hardy and enduring as the beasts of the field. Often a native will find himself in the dry season at many leagues' distance from the nearest water. This troubles him but very little. Notwithstanding the dry, thirst giving nature of his diet, he can exist without drinking for days comfortably enough. Twice a week or so he will go down to water with his cattle to the nearest laguna and slake his thirst.

How unlike the white man, who has such an unfortunate tendency to get thirsty at all sorts of odd moments!—Youth's Companion.

To Prevent a Black Eye.

There is nothing to compare with the tincture or a strong infusion of capsicum annum mixed with an equal bulk of mucilage of gum, arabic, and with the addition of a few drops of glycerine. This should be painted all over the surface with a camel's hair pencil and allowed to dry on, a second or third coating being applied as soon as the first is dry. If done as soon as the injury is inflicted, this treatment will invariably prevent the blackening of the bruised tissue. The same remedy has no equal in rheumatic stiff neck.—St. Louis Polytechnic.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and by thus overcoming the local symptoms removes the sympathetic effects of the disease, banishes the headache, and refreshes the tired mind.

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."

The tourist season will not fairly open at Lake Tahoe until after the Fourth of July on account of the immense piles of snow in the valley and on the mountain sides. It is feared the season will be very short. The great amount of snow will doubtless cause frequent and heavy frosts, during the Summer months, making the lake undesirable as a pleasure resort.

Will Meet April 23d.
A meeting of the Republican State Central Committee of California will be held at the rooms of the Committee, No. 410 California street, on Wednesday, April 23d, at 2 o'clock P. M. The object for the meeting is to fix the time and place for the Republican State Convention to nominate State officers, to apportion the number of delegates to which each county may be entitled to such convention, and for the consideration of such other business as may be properly brought before the Committee.

Reduction for Sheep.
The Southern Pacific Company has just made a reduction in freight rates for the sheepmen of Nevada. It is not as great as was asked for, but is a material reduction,
as follows: From Reno to San Francisco from $50 to $45; the new rate from Love-lock is $50, from Rye Patch $50, from Winnemucca $53, from Stone House $54 50 and from Battle Mountain $55 50. The rates apply to car load lots to San Francisco, Stockton, Oakland Stock Yards, Sacramento and Marysville.

Delayed Train.
No. 3, due here yesterday morning at 10:05 o'clock, from the west, did not arrive until 7 o'clock last evening. The delay was caused by the two engines on a freight train getting derailed this side of Truckee. A wrecking train from Wadsworth passed here about noon on its way to the scene of the accident.

The present disastrous flood in the lower Mississippi valley emphasizes the inability of national and state governments to prevent annual overflows. Millions upon millions have been squandered in constructing new and in repairing old levees, with the result of only temporarily confining the mighty volume of water to its proper channel. Every year additions have been made to banks, without increasing the security of the surrounding country. It is a demonstrated fact that vast quantities of soil carried down by the water are deposited in the channel, raising the bed of the river almost as rapidly as the levees are increased in height. The result is that the bed of the river is now on a level with the low lands. The pressure of the present flood upon the levees is so great that miles of them have melted away, pouring a resist-less torrent over the country and destroying an empire of the richest land on the continent. How these annual disasters can be averted remains a serious problem for the engineers of the future. One thing is settled: The enormous sums already expended have been to a large extent wasted.

Advice to Mothers.
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 35 cents a bottle. feb. 21-aw-ly

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at 250 Beautiful Lots For Sale!

A RARE CHANCE FOR AN INVESTMENT AND A HOME

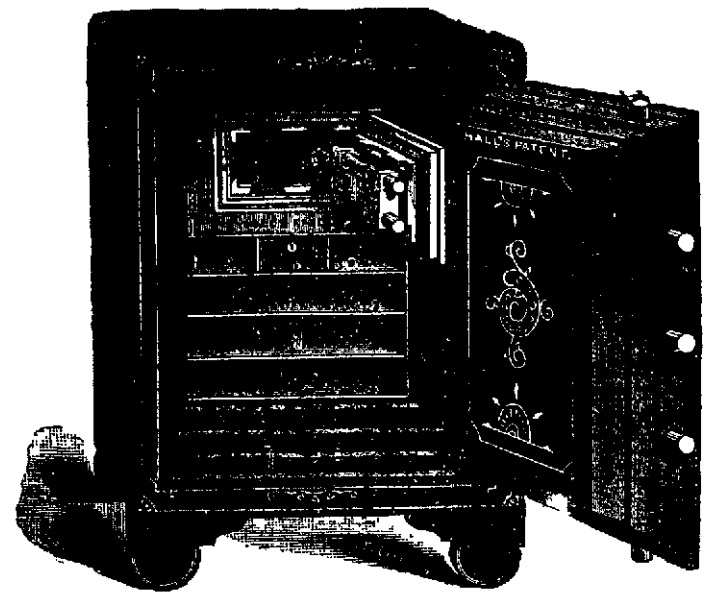

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Avenue Riverside Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition.

The State Fair is always held at Reno.

RENO

Has no equal in Nevada or California for salubrity of climate, wealth of soil, diversity of products and stability. Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.

The Reno Water Co. furnishes ample pure, cold water for all purposes. The Reno Electric Light Co.'s electric light system, already well established, is being augmented. The Reno Gas Co. supplies gas for all purposes. The streets of Reno are lighted by electricity.
